Numb. 6963.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 20. to Tuesday February 23. 1730.

Moscow, January 18, O. S.

ON the 14th Instant the Chinese Ambassadours made their publick Entry into this City. The Guards and Coaches which the Czarina sent to meet them added much to the Splendour of this Ceremony. Her Majesty dined that Day at Count Levenvold's, from whence she saw the Entry. We have received Advice, that the Turkish Ambassadour who is to come hither from the new Sultan, is set out from Constantinople, and her Czarish Majesty has sent Orders to the Frontiers to receive him with the usual Marks of Honour.

Moscow, Jan. 25, O. S. The 19th Instant being the Day of her Czarish Majesty's Accession to the Throne, there were great Rejoycings at this Court. On this Occasion M. Paul Juanish Jagozinsky was made a Count and General Director over all the large Province of Siberia; and her Majesty named Felt-Marshal Trubetskoy to be Commander of the Troops about this Place.

Hambourg, Feb. 23. Letters from Dantzick of the 13th Instant advise, that the Presidents of the several Reformed and Lutheran Churches in Poland have come to a Resolution to hold an Assembly four Times a Year at Dantzick, there to deliberate upon Ways and Means how to support the free Exercise of their Religion, the Roman Catholicks continuing their Machinations against them. These Letters also add, that there was an Account from Warsaw, that the Diversions of the Carneval being now at an End, it was supposed his Polish Majesty would set out in a short Time for Saxony, the Tartar Ambassadour's Audience of Leave being appointed for the Middle of next Month.

Hague, March 2, N. S. The Commissioners of the Admiralties have Orders to repair hither by the 7th Instant, to receive the last Instructions from their High Mightinesses upon the Sea Armament for this Summer. Prince William of Hesse is expected here about the 15th of this Month. His Nephew the Prince of Orange will not be here at that Time, as was reported, he having changed his Resolution.

Whitehall, Feb. 22, 1730.

Whereas the Warehouses and Accompting House at Dyers Hall in Thames Street have of late been Four Times broken open in the Night Time, and sundry Parcels of Linnens, and other Things of Value, stole from thence: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robberies, or any of them, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned therein, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, James Henckell, of Lawrence Poultney Lane, London, Merchant, does hereby promise, That whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in the said Robberies, or either of them, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall, upon such Conviction, receive from him as a Reward the Sum of Fifty Guineas.

James Henckell.

Navy-Office, Feb. 3, 1730.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy having appointed Friday the 5th of March next in the Morning, for coming to a new Contract with such Persons as are inclinable to supply the Seamen serving in His Majesty's Ships with the following Particulars, viz. Jackets, Waste Coats, Kersey and Shag Breeches, Shirts, Leather Caps, Drawers, Woollen Stockings, Woollen Gloves, Double Sole Shoes, Brass Buckles, Striped Ticken Wastcoats, Striped Ticken Breeches, according to the present Patterns at the cheapest Rates, to be paid for what shall be issued as the Ships come to be paid, and to be subject to the Rules established for vending Cloaths on Board His Majesty's Ships. These are to give Notice thereof, that such Persons as shall incline to undertake the said Service, may in the mean Time come and View the Patterns and inform themselves of the said Rules, in order to their treating with us accordingly.

Advertisements.

Feb. 22, 1730.

†‡† Whereas in the Month of January 1727, it was requested by several Advertisements in the Evening Post, that the Subscribers to the new Edition of Dr. Spencer De Legibus Hebræorum, would be pleased to send for their Books before the 25th of March then following; and whereas there are still a small Number to be delivered, This is to give Notice, that if any of them shall not be demanded before Midsummer Day next, they will be Sold, and the Warehouse Lett. They may be had of the Editor the Rev. Mr. Chappellow, at St. John's College in Cambridge.

WHereas Mr. Anthony Charoppin has lent a considerable Sum of Money upon certain Effects: This is to give Notice to the Person to whom the said Money was lent, that unless he pays the same to the said Mr. Charoppin on or before the 13th Day of March next, he the said Charoppin will sell the Effects in his Hands towards making himself Satisfaction.
